PLAINTIFF, JOHN MELLOR-CRUMLEY'S, RESPONSE TO DEFENDANTS' FIRST INTERROGATORY

TO: Defendants State of Texas, Rick Perry, the Texas Secretary of State, and Steve McCraw by and through their attorney, John Scott, Deputy Attorney for Civil Litigation, Office of the Attorney General, via first class mail, return receipt requested to 209 West 14th Street, P.O. Box 12548, Austin, TX 70711-2548

COMES NOW Plaintiff, JOHN MELLOR-CRUMLEY, pursuant to Fed.R.Civ.P. 34, and submits his response to Defendants' First Request for Interrogatory.

OBJECTIONS TO DEFINITIONS

1. Plaintiff objects to the definition of the term “Electronically Stored Information” on the grounds that the definition is overly broad and unduly burdensome. Plaintiff further objects to this definition to the extent that it seeks information not in Plaintiff’s possession, custody, or control. Accordingly, Plaintiff interprets the term “Electronically Stored Information” as synonymous in meaning and equal in scope to the usage of the term “electronically stored information” in Rule 34 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure.

2. Plaintiff objects to the definition of the term “document” on grounds that the definition is overly broad and unduly burdensome. Plaintiff further objects to this definition to the extent that it seeks information not in Plaintiff’s possession, custody, or control. Plaintiff interprets the term “document” as synonymous in meaning and equal in scope to the usage of the term “document” in Rule 34 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure.

3. Plaintiff objects to the definition of “you and your” on grounds that the definition is overly broad and unduly burdensome. Plaintiff further objects to this definition to the extent that it includes within the definition individuals who are not parties to this litigation. Plaintiff interprets for purposes of these document requests “you and your” to respectively refer to any individual.

INTERROGATORY NO. 1:

Please identify and describe in detail all facts that support your claim that SB 14, as enacted by the State of Texas' 82nd Legislature, was enacted with a discriminatory purpose and intent. This interrogatory includes a request to identify any documents or tangible things you intend to rely on at trial which have not been, or will not be, produced in response to any Request for Production propounded on you or any other party by Defendants.

OBJECTIONS

1. Plaintiff objects to Defendants' First Interrogatory to the extent it seeks information or the disclosure of information which is protected by any privilege or immunity including the attorney-client privilege, work product doctrine, common interest privilege or any other statutory or common law privilege. Plaintiff reserves the right to withhold such information. Any inadvertent disclosure of such privileged or otherwise protected information shall not be deemed a waiver of any privilege or work product immunity. The Clawback Order entered in this matter on November 4, 2013 governs any such disclosure. See Agreement Concerning Production Format, ECF No. 61-6.

2. Plaintiff objects to Defendants' First Interrogatory to the extent Defendants attempt or purport to impose greater or different obligations in discovery than are required by the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure or the Local Rules of this Court.

3. Plaintiff objects to Defendants' First Interrogatory to the extent Defendants seek information that calls for a legal conclusion.

4. Plaintiff objects to Defendants' First Interrogatory on the grounds that it is vague, ambiguous, and makes responding impossible without speculation.

5. Plaintiff objects to Defendants' First Interrogatory to the extent that it seeks information not within Plaintiff's possession, custody or control.

6. Plaintiff objects to Defendants' First Interrogatory to the extent that it is premature at this stage of discovery. For example, but not limited to, the identification of documents to be produced at trial is governed by the Court's scheduling order.

7. Plaintiff's consent herein to respond to Defendants' First Interrogatory shall not be construed as an admission by Plaintiff that such information, in fact, exists or that such information, if it exists, is in Plaintiff's possession, custody or control.

8. Plaintiff responds solely for the purpose of and in relation to this action. Plaintiff's Response to Defendants' First Interrogatory is made subject to any and all objections to competence, relevance, materiality, and admissibility that would require the exclusion at the time of trial of any statement and/or document produced in response to the First Interrogatory. Plaintiff reserves the right to interpose such objections at the time of trial, if any.

9. Plaintiff reserves the right to amend, revise or supplement its responses at any time prior to trial or otherwise permitted by applicable law or under the Court's Scheduling Order.

10. To the extent Plaintiff's response to the Defendants' First Interrogatory requires the disclosure of protected material, including but not limited to confidential information or any information implicating privacy interests, Plaintiff's response shall be subject to the Consent Protective Order entered in this matter on December 5, 2013, ECF No. 105, or any subsequent revisions to the Protective Order agreed upon by the parties. Plaintiff further objects to the extent Defendants' First Interrogatory seeks confidential or personal information of a third party, the disclosure of which is not permitted by reason of privacy laws or other binding legal obligation.

11. Plaintiff objects to Defendants' First Interrogatory to the extent that it seeks documents that are neither relevant to the issues in this dispute nor reasonably calculated to lead to the discovery of admissible evidence. To the extent Plaintiff identifies documents in response to the Interrogatory, Plaintiff does not concede that the documents are admissible in evidence or relevant to this action.

12. Plaintiff objects to Defendants' First Interrogatory as vague, ambiguous, overly broad, and unduly burdensome. Plaintiff's response is with respect to the time period from January 1, 2012 to the present, unless otherwise indicated.

13. Plaintiff objects to Defendants' First Interrogatory insofar as it seeks identification of documents that are unreasonably cumulative or duplicative, already in the possession of Defendants, primarily or exclusively within Defendants' knowledge or control, or obtainable from some other source that is less burdensome or less expensive. Plaintiff objects to Defendants' First Interrogatory to the extent it seeks identification of documents beyond those in Plaintiff's possession, custody, or control.

14. Plaintiff objects to Defendants' First Interrogatory to the extent that it is unclear, ambiguous, overly broad, or unduly burdensome.

15. Plaintiff objects to Defendants' First Interrogatory requesting "all," "each," or "any" identification of documents and/or facts on grounds that such requests are overly broad and unduly burdensome, seek irrelevant information, and seek to impose obligations beyond those imposed by law. Plaintiff will construe the terms of the Interrogatory to request that they use reasonable diligence to identify responsive non-privileged documents, based on examination of those sources that may reasonably be expected to yield such documents and of course Plaintiff reserves the right to continue to supplement these responses to the extent additional documents are located.

16. Plaintiff objects to this First Interrogatory as harassing and burdensome. The above objections, and those made by other parties, are incorporated by reference herein. Dallas County further objects to this Interrogatory as a premature contention interrogatory that seeks a comprehensive identification of relevant facts before the close of discovery. See Fed. R. Civ. P. 33(a)(2); Wallace v. GEO Grp., Inc., No. 2:12-cv-2745, 2013 WL 6490320, at *3 (W.D. La. Dec. 10, 2013); Brassell v. Turner, No. 3:05-cv-476, 2006 WL 1806465, at *3 (S.D. Miss. June 29, 2006). Furthermore, the discriminatory purpose underlying SB 14 is described in substantial detail in the Private Plaintiffs and United States' Responses in Opposition to Defendants' Motion to Dismiss filed in this case(ECF. No. 92); the Defendant-Intervenors' and U.S.'s Proposed Findings of Fact in Texas v. Holder, No. 1:12-CV-00128 (D.D.C. June 25, 2012) (ECF. No. 223); the expert report and supplemental expert reports of all expert witnesses produced in Texas v. Holder, No. 1:12-cv-128 (D.D.C.); the depositions taken in Texas v. Holder, No. 1:12-cv-128 (D.D.C.); the exhibits entered into evidence in Texas v. Holder, No. 1:12-cv-128 (D.D.C.); the transcript of the trial conducted in Texas v. Holder, No. 1:12-cv-128 (D.D.C.); the findings of fact and opinion of the court in Texas v. Holder, 888 F. Supp. 2d 113, 138, 144 (D.D.C. 2012), vacated, 133 S. Ct. 2886 (2013)); the materials included in the Private Plaintiffs' and United States' Initial Disclosures. All of the aforementioned documents are in Defendants' possession.

Additionally, please see the voluminous emails and other documents generated by Texas State Legislators and/or their respective staff members relating to various Texas' efforts to legislatively enact a photo ID bill in the legislative sessions of 2007, 2009, 2011 and 2013. Additionally, please see Attorney General, Greg Abbott's announcement that Senate Bill 14 would be immediately implemented, which was issued on or about June 25th, 2014, the same day that the United States Supreme Court issued its opinion in Shelby County v. Holder.

Plaintiff's counsel reserves the right to supplement this Interrogatory answer and specifically directs Defendants' attention to the deposition of Keith Ingram completed on April 23rd, 2014, which was the first deposition completed in this case. As Defendant knows there will be many depositions completed in this case that will contain information responsive to this interrogatory and many expert reports produced, which will also contain information responsive to this interrogatory, all of which are incorporated by reference in Plaintiff's response to this Interrogatory.

Dated this 30th day of April, 2014.

Respectfully submitted,

BRAZIL & DUNN LLP
